

POST-ASSESSMENT REFLECTION

1. Think about the best leader you know, have worked for, or admire.

What is her or his vision? What promise does s/he offer?

2. What about this description reflects your own leadership aspirations?

How would you describe yourself as an ideal leader?

3. What competencies can you leverage to move toward your ideal leadership aspirations?

What would you want to use more of to reach your goals? What would be gained if you use these strengths?

4. What are the risks you currently face moving toward your ideal leadership aspirations?

What would you need to let go of to reach your goals? What would be lost if you don't let go of these things?
